Dearest Sue,

I really don't know what to say. I suppose I could write a whole book on the good times we've had and the things we've done. Here's all the happiness I can wish to the sweetest girl I know. And when Love comes to stay, I hope he is the best in the world. (Besides mine!) No joke though, make the best of life you can and may we always be the best of friends.

Just a word from the wise:
"If you can't win one way, Cheat the other!"

Love,

Carolyn Griffin

I hope you have the best of everything here in Jamestown, New York

Do a Sharp Homeroom Pal—

JEFFERSON DAVIS SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL

HOUSTON, TEXAS
Volume Twenty-Eight

foreword

To the senior classes of nineteen hundred and fifty-four, we dedicate these pages as a written and pictorial memory of the hours spent here in the halls of Jefferson Davis.

It is our wish that as you turn these pages you may relive those happy days of your senior year.

Here is your 1953-'54 BEAUVOIR.

PATSY RIVERS
Editor

dedication

To Mrs. Daisy Coe, our yearbook sponsor, we dedicate the 1954 BEAUVOIR. Although this is the first dedication in a long span of years, we sincerely believe that she deserves it. Through many tireless hours and her ever-ready encouragement, the past seven BEAUVOIRS have preserved for thousands of seniors, juniors, and sophomores delightful memories of Davis High. So, Mrs. Coe, may this dedication, coming from an appreciative staff, be only one of many pleasant surprises to come your way. Knowing your deep modesty and distastes for placing yourself in a pre-eminent position in this book, we hope that you will recognize our forwardness as an effort to bring to you a small portion of the recognition you so deserve.

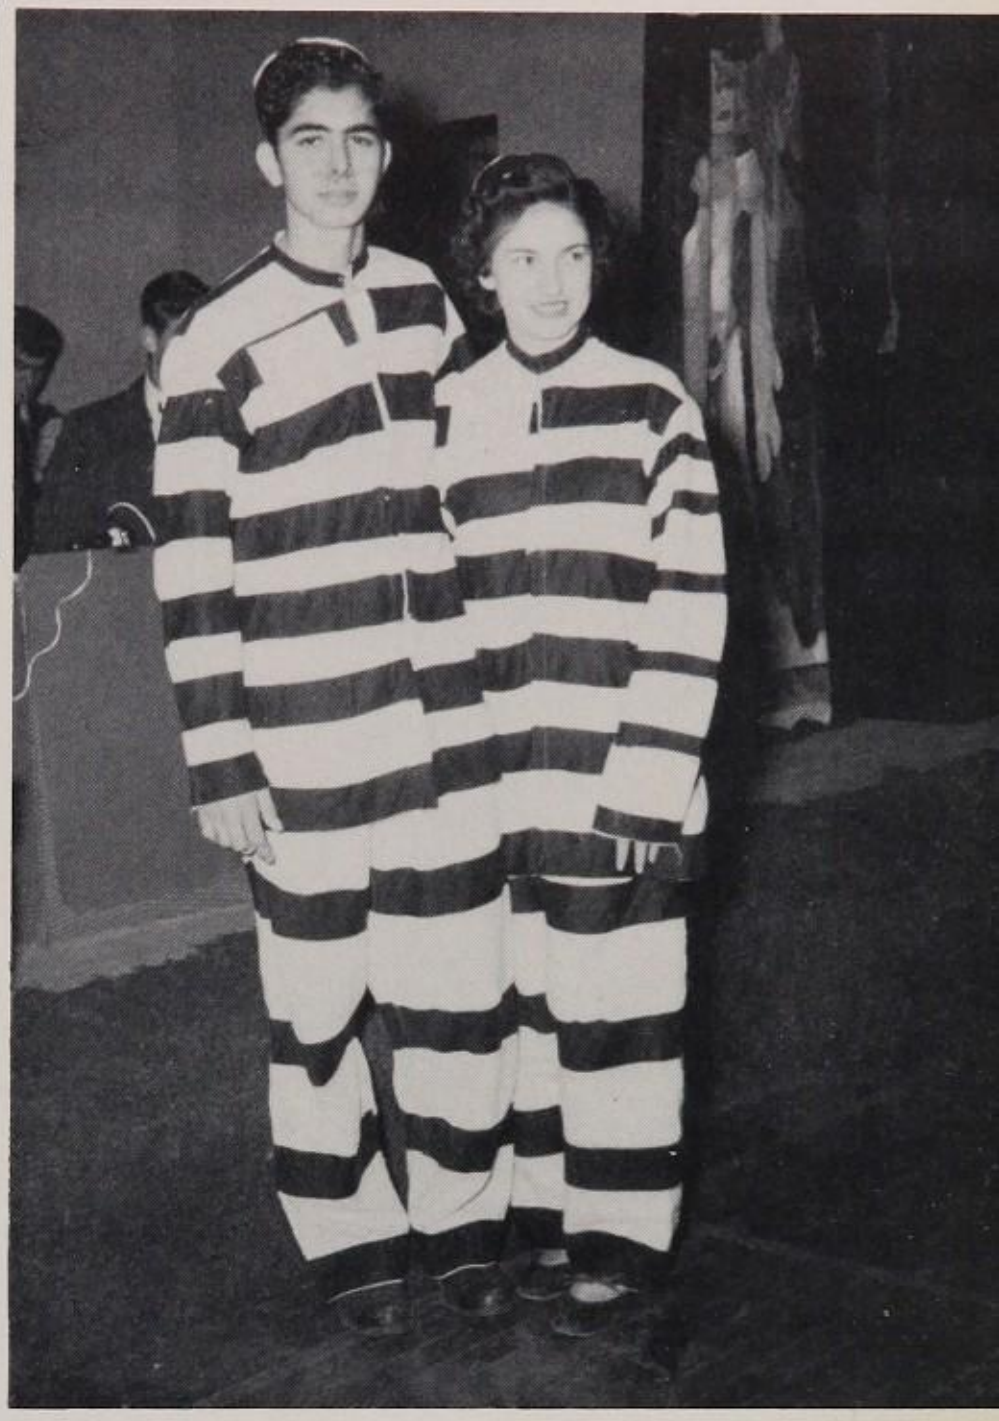
Daniel Faour and Helen Harper take second place with their prison costumes.

Mary Beth Blasdel and Austin Bland, first place winners at the D.D.D.D. costume ball, with their impersonation of "Raggedy Ann and Raggedy Andy."

The committee prepares for the D.D.D.D. dance.



To make up the financial deficit for an otherwise successful dance, Miss Simpson auctions impressions of her nose to the highest bidder.

The Carlton Cadettes of Jefferson Davis High School are known to everyone on the campus. Under the leadership of Major Bonnie St. Pe' and the guidance of Mrs. Lily Lou Mitch the organization drilled at the Rice Blue and Gray game, all the Davis home games and the Beaumont game, the Armistice Day Parade, and the Crippled Childrens Ball. They sponsored the annual Sweethearts Ball, a sock hop, and the Mother-Daughter banquet. Among other activities, they published the student directory, sold souvenir ceramics, ushered at the Fat Stock Show and made an appearance on television.

Miss Shirley Hanania
Assistant Editor, THE BEAUVOIR
Jefferson Davis Senior High School
1200 Quitman Street
Houston, Texas

Dear Miss Hanania:

In selecting the most beautiful girls and most handsome boys for THE BEAUVOIR of 1954, we have based our decisions on natural beauty, poise, personality and good grooming.

We sincerely hope that our selections meet with the approval of the student body.

Thank you for giving us the privilege of judging your contest again this year.

Sincerely,

Mary Beth McDonald

MBMc:vr

According to tradition, photographs, submitted to this contest by the students, were judged by a committee composed of representatives from the student body, faculty, and school organizations. Then the entire collection of pictures was sent to Miss Mary Beth McDonald, who selected Davis's twelve most beautiful girls and twelve handsomest boys.

In perfect form are Janet Prade, Betty Edwards, and Joy Jarrell aiming for a bull's eye.

Have an accident, Jane Marlow and Donna Lawson? Fixing the girls up are Elsie Lee and Lanelle Brackenbush.

gym classes

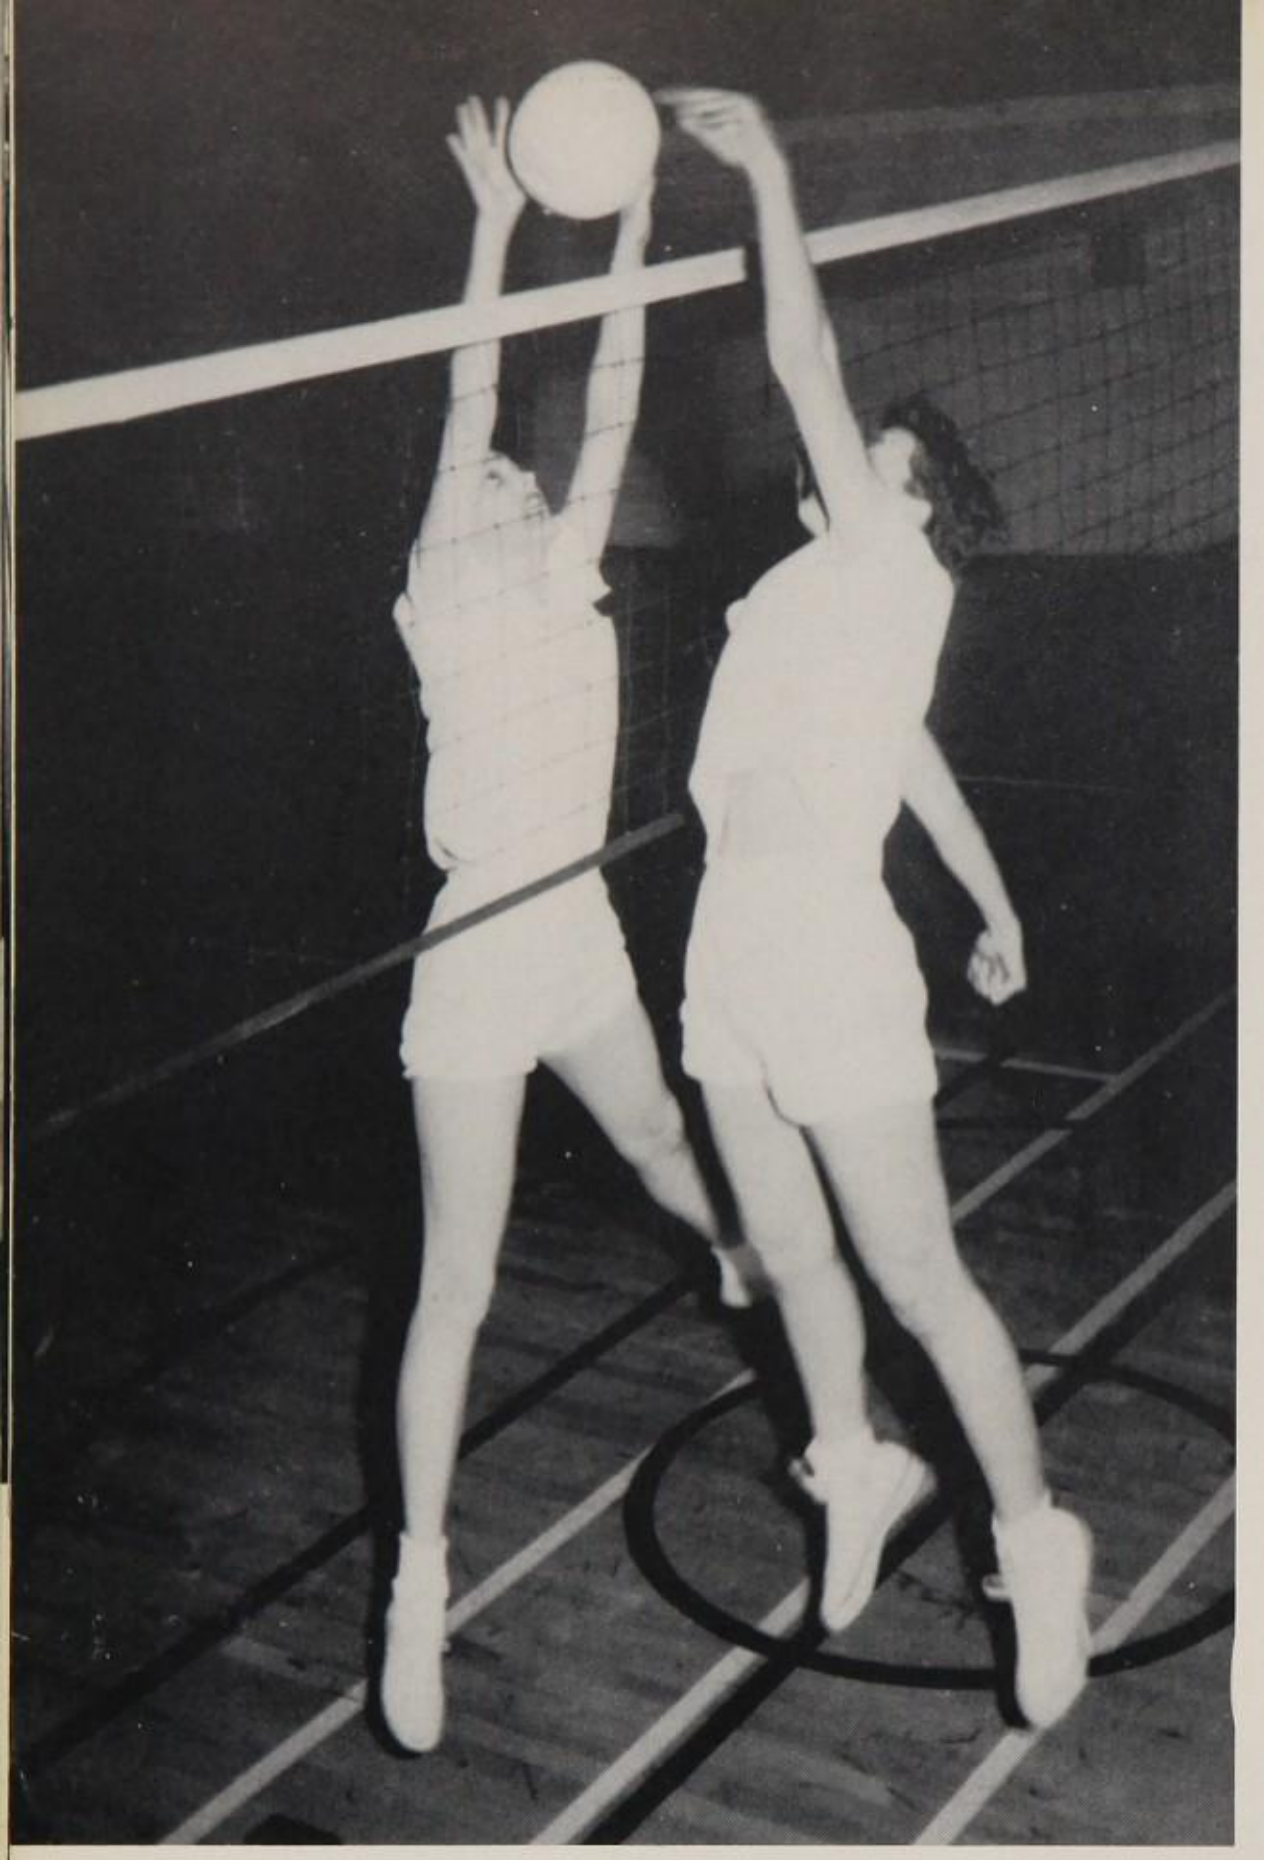
Who says teachers seldom smile? Just look at Miss Brandhorst and Miss Gleckler.

Acting as secretary for Mrs. Mitch is Miss Newton.

The girls' dressing room is a busy place at all times.



Spiking the ball is Carol Magee, and reaching to return it is Mary Jo Lester.

Sharon Brooks successfully shoots for the basket. Guarding her is Joy Hughes, and getting ready to receive the ball is Margaret Leuandowski.

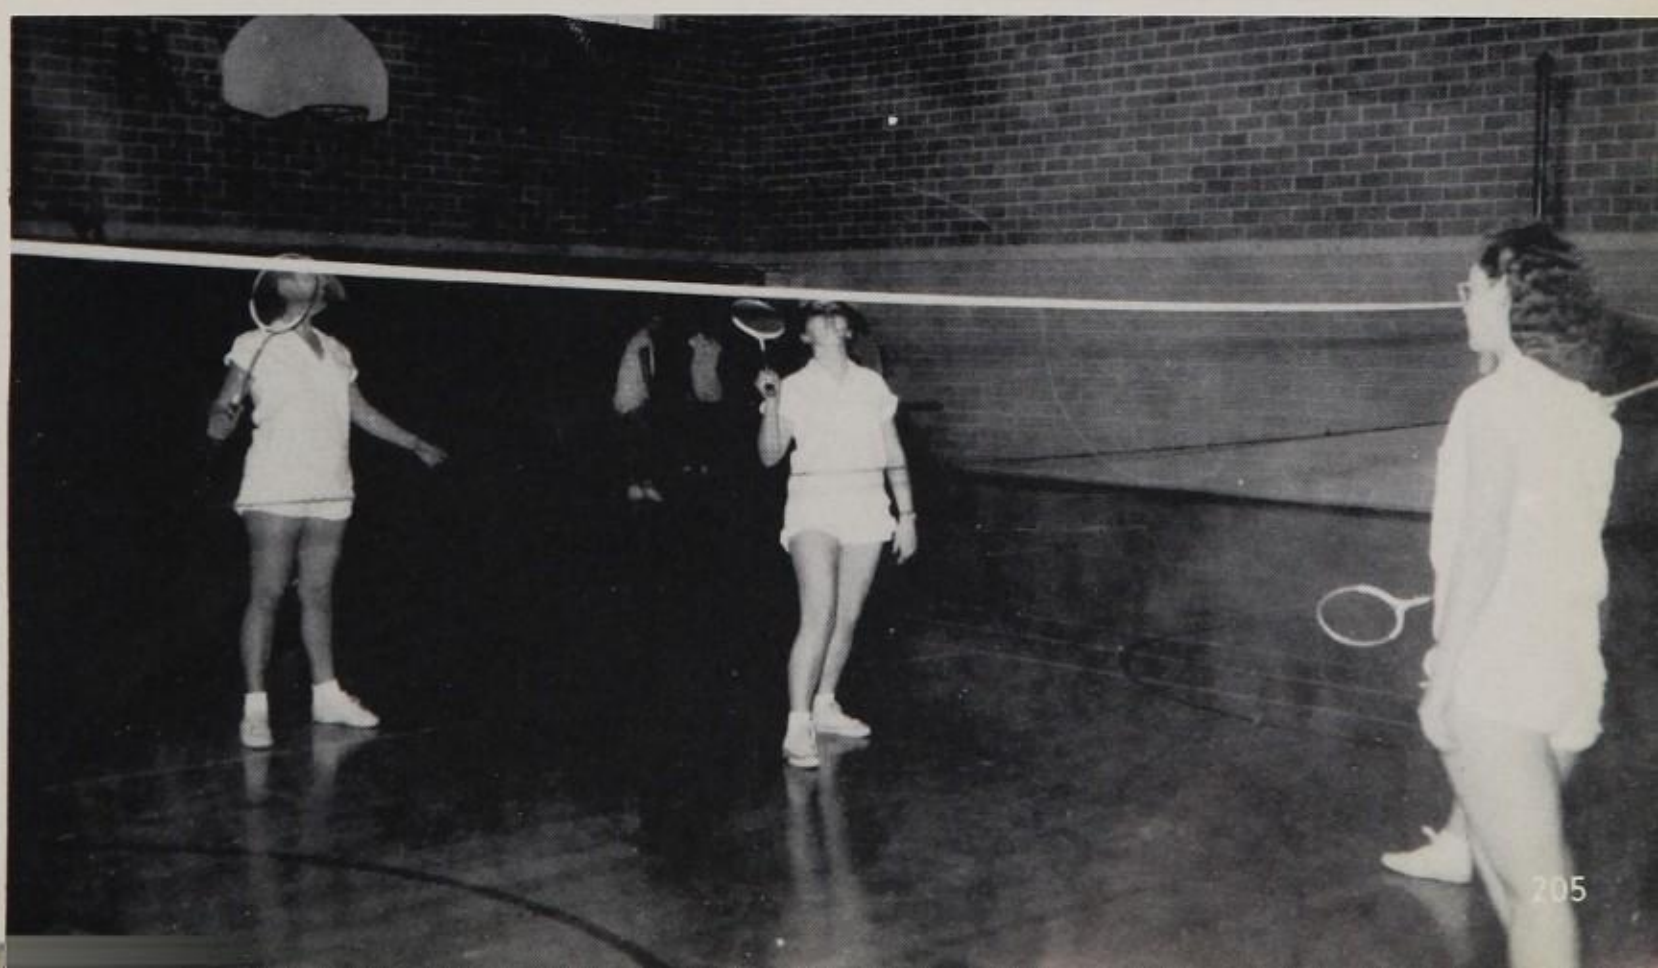
Look at these swimmers do the back float. The photographer catches Kay Bates as she looks up.

Girls! Swing your tennis rackets up and around. Miss Newton demonstrates to her sophomore class the techniques of tennis.

To develop poise and grace, modern dance is needed. Just look at the lovely ladies.

Mary White stands ready for the ball as Geraldine Grissom returns it.

Watch for the birdie girls. Waiting for the bird to return is Donna Englishbee.



Sponsor of our girls' swimming team is Miss Gleckler. The bathing beauties are Betty Fones, Sara Blankenship, Karen Wroten, Mary Sappington, Wynelle Otto, Elaine Phillips, Barbara Shaw, Donnie Englishbee, Pat Jackson, Ann Beasley, Kathy Goodman, Endina Ramos, Velveneece Brooks, and Bobby Lewis (manager).

Baseball is a favorite sport with the girls. Getting ready to pitch is Aileen Gott, and in the catcher's position is Edna Mae Wetz.
